OIL provides financial assistance towards procurement of small vehicles for initiating door-to-door collection and transportation of municipality waste in Tinsukia District

Oil India Limited under its CSR has provided financial assistance of Rs. 48,37,536.00 for purchasing 11 nos. of small vehicles for initiating a new door-to-door waste collection and transportation of the municipality waste in Tinsukia with an aim for building a cleaner and greener city. The project on Solid Waste Management implemented by Tinsukia Municipality Board was ceremoniously inaugurated on 14 June 2019.

The project was inaugurated in the presence of Shri. Oinam Sarankumar Singh, Deputy Commissioner, Tinsukia District; Shri Sanjay Kisan, MLA, Tinsukia; Smt. Deepti Das, Chairman of Tinsukia Municipality Board; Shri Gurnel Singh, ADC, Tinsukia; Shri Dilip Kumar Bhuyan, General Manager, Public Affairs, OIL and various Ward Commissioners & general public.

Tinsukia Municipality Board have large vehicles used for collection and disposal of waste from community bins, households to the dumping sites. But these vehicles cannot enter the narrow lanes in the residential areas. The new small vehicles would help collect the waste directly from the doorsteps of the households as these vehicles can easily move in narrow roads. The door-to-door garbage collection initiative would make waste management in Tinsukia much organized and regular.

Skill Training Course Completion Certificates distributed under Project Rupantar

OIL Launches Environmental Research Project on Present Status of Endangered White Winged Duck

Fully funded by OIL, the research study project to be conducted by Digboi College on present status of endangered White Winged Duck (Asarcornis Scutulata), the State Bird of Assam was ceremoniously launched on 3rd of April 2019 at Digboi College. Oil India Limited has supported the research study project under its CSR initiative towards conservation of environment.

The programme was graced by Dr. Dip Saikia, Principal Digboi College, Shri Dilip Bhattacharya, President, Governing Body- Digboi College, Shri Dilip Kumar Bhuyan, GM Public Affairs-OIL, Shri Tridiv Hazarika, DGM Public Affairs-OIL, Shri Gopal G Rasu, DGM (S&E)-OIL, Shri Alakesh Borah, DGM Eastern Asset-OIL along with other senior officials from OIL, teaching fraternity and students of Digboi College.

Dr. Dip Saikia in his speech expressed his gratitude towards Oil India Ltd. for providing the financial assistance towards the project and summed up the objectives and importance of the research study. Shri Dilip K Bhuyan, GM Public Affairs-OIL in his speech stated how OIL being in a business of exploration & production of hydrocarbons, strives to preserve the environment and conserve biodiversity in its operational areas.

While praising the initiative of Digboi college in commencing the study, other officials from OIL spoke at length about the measures taken by the Company to protect the environment in its operational areas. The officials also stated as how the people in and around Digboi can also offer their helping hand in preservation of Oil fields of Digboi which is now a world heritage site.

About the Project:

The White Winged Duck (Asarcornis Scutulata) is the State Bird of Assam and due to various threats to their survival, has become one of the rarest duck species in the world. In India, this bird is found only in the states of Assam and Arunachal Pradesh but currently, their population is undergoing a rapid and drastic decline due to deforestation and hunting by people depending on the forests for their livelihood. In the state of Assam, the forest areas of Tinsukia district has been the natural nesting ground of this endangered species. However, due to lack of research, their present population and distribution is still unknown. The objectives of this research project is therefore to determine their population in Digboi and the surrounding areas, identification of threats associated with their survival and introducing conservative measures for their long term survival.

Physical Feature:

The State Bird of Assam White Winged Duck Asarcornis scutulata is one of the rarest duck species of the world. It has a black body, a white head that is thickly spotted with black, conspicuous white patches on the wings and red or orange eyes. Its average length is about 81 cm. The sexes are more or less alike, the male having more gloss on the plumage, and being much larger and heavier.
